(intro)

Wise men say, "Only fools rush in." But I can't help, falling in love with you Shall I stay? Would it be a sin, if I can't help falling in love with you?

Like a river flows, surely to the sea, darling, so it goes, some things are meant to be

Take my hand, take my whole life too. For I can't help, falling in love with you

Like a river flows, surely to the sea, darling, so it goes, some things are meant to be

Take my hand, take my whole life too. For I can't help, falling in love with you

For I can't help, falling in love with you
