The first Noel, the angels did say,
Was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay
They looked up, and saw a star, shining in the East, beyond them far
And by the light of that same star, Three wise men came from the country far;
This star drew nigh to the north-west; O'er Bethlehem it took it's rest,
Then entered in those wise men three, Fell reverently upon their knee,
Then let us all with one accord, Sing praises to our heavenly Lord,

In fields where they lay, a-keeping their sheep, On a cold winter's night that was so deep.
And to the Earth it gave great light, and so it continued both day and night.
To seek for a King was their intent, And to follow the star wherever it went.
And there it did both stop and stay, Right over the place where Jesus lay.
And offered there in his presence, Their gold and myrrh and frankincense.
That hath made heaven and earth of nought, And with his blood mankind has bought.
